

G PNo. of Scouts: 2

Scout One: Do you have the results of the tests doctor?

Scout Two: Yes, I do. There is good news and bad news.

Scout One: I'll have the good news first.

Scout Two: The good news is that you have twenty-four hours to live.

Scout One: That's not good news! Still, at least I have a whole day to go and enjoy myself. So if you would excuse me I'll be off now to go and have some fun. But before I go, what's the bad news?

Scout Two: The bad news is that I should have told you the results of the tests yesterday.
(Scout one collapses.)
