

UGLIEST PERSON IN THE WORLD

No. of Scouts: 5+ and a volunteer

Equipment: Blanket and chair

Scout one is sitting centre stage on the chair with a blanket over his head. Scout two is standing beside him.

Scout Two: Roll up, roll up. Come and see the ugliest man in the world! Scare yourselves silly! Only one pound a peep! (The other scouts come onstage).

Scout Three (giving money to Scout two): I'll have a look. (Peeps under the blanket then screams and runs offstage.)

Scout Two: Roll up, roll up. Anyone else man or woman enough to have a look?

Scout Four (giving money to scout two): I can take it! I'm not scared. Let me have a look. (Peeps under the blanket then screams and runs offstage.)

Scout Two: Oh my goodness, there must be someone who can take the shock! Anyone?

Scout Five (giving money to scout two): Let me see. I've seen some rather disgusting things before in my life! (Peeps under the blanket then screams and runs offstage.)

Scout Two: Now I've run out of customers. (To the audience) Is there anybody out there who can take the shock? There must be someone grave enough. (Goes over to a volunteer). Come on, you have a look. (Tells them quietly to peep under the blanket but do nothing else. When the volunteer looks under the blanket scout one jumps up and runs away screaming.)