

PAINTER*No. of Scouts: 4Equipment: 2 coats per painter

Three scouts are painting.

Scout One: It is such hard work painting the scout hut walls like this.

Scout Two: I know! Still we have to do what Skip says otherwise he will get very cross.

Scout Three: I'm so hot. Why he told us to do it like this in the middle of summer I have no idea!

Scout Four (coming onstage): What are you doing?

Scout One: We're painting the scout hut walls.

Scout Two: During the holidays.

Scout Three: But we are all so hot!

Scout Four: I'm not surprised with you dressed like that. Why are you?

Scout One: Skip said that we had to paint the walls with two coats.
