

CLIMB THAT

No. of Scouts: 2

Equipment: Torch

Scout One: Look at that tree! I wouldn't like to climb that. It looks far too difficult.

Scout Two: That's a piece of cake. I can climb that easily. I've done it loads of times. Right to the top!

Scout One: What about that steep hill over there?

Scout Two: That's a piece of cake also. I could climb that easily. I've done it loads of times. Right to the top! No problem for me!

Scout One: What about the outside of The Shard?

Scout Two: The easiest. Done it three times now. No ropes. That's the best way.

Scout One: How about Mount Everest?

Scout Two: Simple. Done it with my best mate James Ketchell. He struggled but I didn't! A bit cold but there's nothing that I can't climb. I've never been defeated yet!

Scout One: Oh yeah? Well I can show you something that you can't climb!

Scout Two: No chance. I tell you what. If I can't climb it I'll give you twenty pounds!

Scout One (turning on his torch and shining the beam up into the sky): Climb that!

Scout Two: No! Don't be stupid!

Scout One: I knew you wouldn't be able to. Now give me my twenty pounds.

Scout Two: I am able! I just don't want to!

Scout One: Why not?

Scout Two: Because I know what you're like. I would get halfway up then you'd turn the torch off!
